Philipp Wagner is a recognized international arbitrator and mediator, and advises clients in corporate and commercial law as well as real estate law.

Philipp's main area of practice is international arbitration. He is the founder of the first Berlin law firm primarily dedicated to this field. His experience includes multiple appointments as arbitrator, many of them as chairman of the arbitral tribunal or sole arbitrator.

His expertise as mediator has proven to be particularly effective in corporate disputes, especially in family run enterprises. As counsel, Philipp regularly represents parties in corporate, post-M&A and commercial disputes. He is also an experienced counsellor in international business transactions.

Philipp is a German attorney and admitted to the New York Bar. He teaches commercial arbitration at Berlin Humboldt University and is fluent in English, French and German. Philipp is regularly included in legal professional guides and was ranked as Best Lawyers' 2016 Berlin Arbitration and Mediation "Lawyer of the Year".
