Felix Krumbiegel joined the firm in March 2018 and advises in all areas of dispute resolution and commercial law, in particular on regulatory matters.

His special focus is on investment arbitration and public international law. Felix has gained broad experience in these fields with a major law firm in Paris and during his doctoral studies.

Another of Felix' key practice areas is advising national and international clients on regulatory compliance and environmental matters. He worked in this field for law firms in Brussels and Berlin.

Felix studied at the Universities of Tübingen and Bonn and is admitted to the Berlin Bar. His doctoral thesis deals with the annexation of the Crimean peninsula by the Russian Federation in 2014. Furthermore, Felix plans to enroll in the LL.M. program in dispute resolution at the University of Cape Town in 2019.
