Florian Dupuy advises clients in all matters of international arbitration and international and French business law.

His main areas of specialization are investment treaty arbitration and public international law. He has gained considerable practical experience in these fields with several major law firms in Paris and Geneva. Florian started his career at WAGNER Arbitration in an Of Counsel position in 2014 and has joined the partnership as of 1 April 2020.

His other main field of activity is international commercial arbitration, especially as party counsel and legal expert. He has been working on numerous arbitration proceedings as party representative and secretary to the arbitral tribunal, in particular ICSID arbitrations.

Florian is admitted to the Paris Bar (Avocat à la Cour) and is a member of the Berlin Bar, having studied in Cambridge, Paris, and Berlin. Florian works in English, French and German and regularly publishes in the field of international investment law.
